If possible, on your part, live at peace with everyone.

Romans 12:18

Humble yourselves before the Lord, and He will exalt you.

James 4:10

And all of you clothe yourselves with humility toward one another, because “God resists the proud but gives grace to the humble.”

Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God, so that He may exalt you at the proper time, casting all your care on Him, because He cares about you.

1 Peter 5:5-7

“Come to Me, all of you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. All of you, take up My yoke and learn from Me, because I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for yourselves. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light.”

Matthew 11:28-30

Discussion/Reflection Questions

1. Is it difficult to admit you're wrong? Why or why not?
2. What is the most difficult relationship you've ever had to repair? What did you learn from that experience?
3. Would you commit Romans 12:18 to memory?
“If possible, on your part, live at peace with everyone.”
